

Shattering the Pride
Ecclesiastes 3:1-22
The Divine Disruption, 3
Dr. Ted Wueste

God desires to shatter our pride by demonstrating that ... 3:1-22

- ... His timing is mysterious. 3:1-8
"for everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven"

Trust His sovereignty and live in the mystery.

- ... His design is mysterious. 3:9-15
"he has put eternity in man's heart, yet so that he cannot find out God has done"

Trust His grace and live dependently.

- ... His judgment is mysterious. 3:16-22
"God will judge the righteous and the wicked for there is a time for every matter"

Trust His goodness and live joyfully.

What does this mean for me?

Quote:

"We must come to the end of ourselves, thoroughly disillusioned with self-sufficiency, before we can truly fear God and enjoy our portion from God." Jim Reitman