

Our Confidence
Ecclesiastes 8:2-15
The Divine Disruption, 7
Dr. Ted Wueste

How do we live wisely?

“who is like the wise?”

- recognize God’s authority in your life.. v. 2-5a
“keep the king’s command”

- rest in God’s timing and ways. v. 5b-8
“the wise heart will know the proper time and the just way”

- be honest about the inability to have certainty. v. 9-11
“the sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily”

- move into the mystery of bigger story of eternity. v. 12-13
“I know that it will be well with those who fear God”

- enjoy your relationship with God. v. 14-15
“and I commend joy ...”

Application ...

Quote:

“We don’t – and we can’t – know everything, and the things we do know are unavoidably limited. Certainty can be a great friend of arrogance.” Shane Hipps, Flickering Pixels