

Assurances
Galatians 3:15-18
Living the Gospel, 11
Dr. Ted Wueste

How do we know that our life in Christ is secure through faith?

We are challenged to consider the promise given to Abraham ...

1. Consider the nature of a covenant. 3:15

God's promise is unchangeable.

2. Consider the nature of its fulfillment. 3:16-17

God's promise is unearned.

3. Consider the nature of God's character. 3:18

God's promise is unstoppable.

Why is this so important?

My response is ...

Quotes:

"To say yes to the pure gift of God and receive it means that I am in the position of the helpless recipient in the hands of Another and no longer in control of my salvation or the living of the Christian life. Independence, self-sufficiency, and control of my salvation are the life energy of the flesh; to receive as a gift what cannot be earned and over which I have no control is certain death to the flesh." Malcolm Smith